Selectmen's Meeting

OVER IN OCTOBER

The Bay Corporation estimates that the sewer installation work in the streets will be complete in October according to Tighe & Bond Engineer Ron Michalski. This will leave the cleanup work and the resurfacing to be completed later, he stated, but the progress is very good and the July 1979 deadline will be met both for the pipe installation and the pumping station. Mr. Michalski said that the work on the pumping station still does not appear to the eye to be well along but appearances are deceiving, he explained, because so much of that project is well below the ground. He said that the Mulholland Corporation expects to be working in a closed building by mid November with a completion date of June or July for the pumping station.

The Selectmen, meeting with Ron Michalski, Project Supervisor Art Usher, and Engineer Phillip Sheridan, all of Tighe & Bond; and Attorney Edward Schaefer, associate of Town Counsel Donald Fleming, discussed in detail assessment for sewer usage following the report on the sewer progress.

WHARF POLICY APPROVED

Acting with Wharf Commissioner Edward Alves, Selectmen and he voted to adopt a policy to be in force until the town meeting can consider the matter. The policy will cover a case where a boat owner dies. The surviving spouse will then succeed to the wharf space until the following April 1. The space will be assigned to the surviving spouse upon proved ownership of the boat docked there.

PART TIME POLICE OFFICERS

Police Chief Duane Tuttle's suggestions were followed by Selectmen in the appointment of three part time police offiof 199 Main Street, Fairhaven were appointed to serve until April 30, 1979 when regular appointments are made.

The question of why all applicants are from out of town was asked and Chairman William Hubbard stated that no applicants from the town were qualified.

The Selectmen also voted to appoint all full time police officers as deputy shellfish wardens. The appointments are to run concurrently with their police appointment and at no extra pay. This move is to allow the police to assist the shellfish warden in the performance of his duty when the occasion requires it.

INDUSTRIAL PARK SIGN

One bid was received from Poyant Signs for the construction of a sign to mark the Industrial Park. The bid of $5871. was rejected because it is greater than the funds that the town has for that purpose.

Hearth Mate the Fireplace Stove

Convert Your Fireplace Into An Efficient
Home Heater . . . with Hearth Mate The Fireplace Stove

SAVE up to 60% in home heating costs!

Save hundreds of dollars in home fuel costs annually as thousands of C & D marketed woodburning fireplace stoves do. Unlike energy wasting fireplaces that send heat up the chimney, the scientifically designed HEARTH MATE radiates and circulates enough controlled warmth to amply heat a six room home in winter. Over 60% savings in home heating costs are the rule . . . not the exception.

Council on Aging

The Mattapoisett Council on Aging wishes to thank the 375 Senior Citizens who completed and returned the recent questionnaire. This represents slightly over one-third of the number of questionnaires mailed.

All responses have been read, and problem areas recorded. Pertinent information has been turned over to the Visiting Nurses Office and to the Senior Nutritional Program. Other parts of the questionnaires are still being analyzed. Personal contacts will be made with many of those

A summary of the findings will be reported at an early fall meeting of the Senior Citizens' Club.

MATTAPOISETT COUNCIL ON AGING

Because we want to give all you Seniors as much time as possible to plan on these trips, we are announcing ahead of our schedule (which will be released probably next week) the following three trips for September: 1) a Nantucket trip on September 7; 2) a Cuttyhunk Island trip on September 12; and 3) a Springfield Exposition trip on September 19. Two of these trips, the Nantucket and the Cuttyhunk trips, we have timed after Labor Day to avoid the crowds, but before the Fall boat schedule goes into effect.

1) On Thursday, September 7, we will have a big bus trip to Nantucket. The bus will leave the American Legion Hall on Depot Street at 7:30 A.M. Deadline

SUMMER ACTIVITIES

August 22 - The "Really Drawing" class will be continued for the 9-12 age group. It will run 4 consecutive days, August 22, 23, 24, 25, and will be held from 2-4 in the afternoon at the Children's Museum in Russells Mills. The course will be aimed at teaching the children to faithfully reproduce what they see. This class is geared toward children who seriously want to draw. There is a charge for the course and pre-registration is appreciated.

August 26 - The Museum Outdoors will offer a free field walk Saturday morning at 10:00 on Ecology. The walk will be to familiarize all ages with their environment, its inhabitants and its many interesting secrets.

August 29 - A special course will be offered by the Children's Museum in the area of examining Marine Life along the shores of the Dartmouth coast. The course has been especially designed according to the tides to explore different marine habitats and to examine the plants and animals unique to the salt water environment. There will be related experiments done in the field and at the Museum. The children participating will be instructed in all that interests them about Marine Life. The course is open to 6-12 year olds and is being given by Bob Bailey. The children will meet at the Children's Museum in Russells Mills and the class will run from 10 A.M. to 12 Noon four consecutive days: August 29, 30, 31 and September 1.

August 29 - Two nature courses will start at the Children's Museum on August 29th. "Reptiles and Amphibians", open to the 6-8 age group, will meet at the Children's Museum in Russells Mills from 2-4 P.M. The course will study area reptile and amphibian residents and visit their habitats. The course will run 4 consecutive days, August 29, 30, 31, and September 1. Running the same days and at the same time but taking place at the Museum Outdoors, will be "A Close Look at Nature" for the pre-schoolers. An opportunity for the little ones to become familiar with all that surrounds them in nature, this summer in a meaningful learning experience. There are charges for both courses, and

SUCCESSFUL SALE HELD

St. Anthony's Church Hall, where the Mattapoissett Seniors' Club will be holding its meeting's beginning next month, was the setting August 5th for a most successful baked goods and vegetable sale held by the club.

The committee on arrangements is most grateful to members and non-members who contributed and also expresses its thanks to the many sale patrons.

Among the salespersons were: Mrs. William Heuberger, Miss Emily Perry, Mrs. Agnes V. Pelczar, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Marchessault, Mrs. Joseph Perry and Mrs.

Donald Welch, and Miss M. Clare Doyle and Mrs. K. Eileen Hurley, co-chairmen. Joseph Perry, president, and John Hall served on the hall committee; Mrs. Ethel Gorun was treasurer.

SEVENTH ANNUAL BEER FESTIVAL

Oom-pa-pa... Oom-pa-pa... The sound of an old fashion German Band and the smell of knockwurst and sauerkraut will fill the air on August 19th and 20th at the Madeira Feast Grounds in New Bedford when the Exchange Club will hold its annual German Beer Festival. Each year the New Bedford Exchange Club sponsors the Beer Festival to raise money for charity. Thousands of people come to hear the thrilling German music, eat the fantastic food and drink from a wide assortment of international beers. This year the Beer Festival will be held on Saturday, August 19th, and Sunday, August 20th, from 3 to 11 P.M. If you purchase your ticket in advance, you will have a chance to win a fabulous door prize. The co-chairmen for this year's event are Jason E. Levine and Louis Guba.

MATTAPOISETT GIRLS SLOW-PITCH INVITATIONAL - CENTRAL PHARMACY
CAPTURES TOURNAMENT

The second annual Girls' Softball Tournament had a lot in common with last year. The first tournament rained off and on all weekend and it was also won by the New Bedford Team Central Pharmacy.

The tournament held at Old Hammondtown School was a double elimination with the following 8 teams participating: "Poyants", "J.B. Lumber All-Stars" and "Central Pharmacy", all from New Bedford; "Mattapoisett Girls", "Carver Women", "Kinyon-Campbell's Charisma" and "Medeiros Bus Co. O.J.'s", both from Fairhaven and "Wareham Recreation".

On Saturday, the first day of the tournament, Carver, Wareham and the O.J.'s were eliminated. Getting down to the nitty gritty on Sunday Mattapoisett, with a Saturday loss to J.B. Lumber, eliminated Charisma at 9:30, then eliminated Poyants at noon and fell victim to J.B. Lumber who already had beaten them on Saturday.

Now, with Mattapoisett eliminated, the finals consisted of the undefeated Central Pharmacy vs J.B. Lumber who already had one loss to Mattapoisett. Central Pharmacy was still too much for the strong J.B. Lumber and they took a 2-0 win. A championship trophy was awarded to Central Pharmacy along with individual trophies to the players and coaches, a runner-up trophy went to J.B. Lumber. Trophies were awarded by Recreation Coordinator Sheila Mitchell, who along with William Badgley organized the tournament.

tion of that old chestnut "Gaslight" is a suspenseful, well acted evening of summer theater and again out of the ordinary for this repertory company's selection. Frank Kim-an's Victorian drawing room set received a thunderous and deserved applause as the curtain opened. It was stylish, imaginative, totally in the period and functional.

Based on "Angel Street" by Patrick Hamilton which played on Broadway in the 1940's and featured Judith Evelyn as Mrs. Man-ningham, the wife being driven out of her head; Vincent Price as the sinister Mr. M. and Leo G. Carroll as the witty in-spector. The M.G.M. screen version was also tremendously successful thanks to the acting values of Ingrid Bergman, Charles Boyer and Joseph Cotten.

Kay Carter Blaha is hauntingly convincing as the harried wife. Larry Bennett captures the menacing but misses the cynicism as the heavy. Paul Hebert makes the show his own as Inspector Rough. His excellent timing and natural humor thoroughly de-light. As the two housemaids, Marcelle

George W. Hayden's meticulous direction catches the Victorian milieu and the psychological horror of the tale; however at times a trifle overdrawn. Chopin's music provides good background as arranged by Frank Tonge. Jay Klimchvek's lighting is satisfactory.

A summertime delight reserved space.

Fair Chairman Eleanor Marshall has provided entertainment for the children via a strolling clown by the name of JOY. He will be making balloon animals and doing sleight-of-hand magic, so bring the kids! The Historical Society has been invited to offer memorabilia of Middleboro for those who would like a memento of the town.

The fair will run from 10:00 A.M. until 6:00 P.M. offering the public the opportunity to purchase good quality handmade items. Mrs. Marshall suggests that the fair offers the occasion to do some Christmas shopping, so bring extra pocket money.

of the American Cancer Society's Greater New Bedford Unit.

The fact that "smoking stinks" is the focus of the American Cancer Society's newest campaign against cigarette smoking. It's aimed at teenage girls and young women, and the program is now underway in Massachusetts.

Cigarette smoking is on the rise among teenage girls. From 1969 to 1975, it increased among this group by 23 percent.

"Most teenagers are aware that cigarette

Many health experts are concerned about tooth decay in young children. To protect your baby's teeth, avoid using a bottle as a pacifier at nap or bedtime. Prolonged contact of baby teeth with juice (or formula) can promote dental caries.
